DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Newly submitted claims 83-84 are directed to an invention that is independent or distinct from the invention originally claimed for the following reasons: the treated fibers are not limited to any curl index or not curl fibers at all

Since applicant has received an action on the merits for the originally presented invention, this invention has been constructively elected by original presentation for prosecution on the merits. Accordingly, claims 83-84 are withdrawn from consideration as being directed to a non-elected invention. See 37 CFR 1.142(b) and MPEP § 821.03.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 13 and 64-82 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The newly added limitation of the mixing of the pulp with uncurled pulp from the same source has not basis in the specification and constitutes new matter.

Response to Amendment

4. The Declaration filed on January 18, 2006 under 37 CFR 1.131 has been considered but is ineffective to overcome the cited reference.

Art Unit: 1731

5. The evidence submitted is insufficient to establish a conception of the invention prior to the effective date of the US Patent reference. While conception is the mental part of the inventive act, it must be capable of proof, such as by demonstrative evidence or by a complete disclosure to another. Conception is more than a vague idea of how to solve a problem. The requisite means themselves and their interaction must also be comprehended. See Mergenthaler v. Scudder, 1897 C.D. 724, 81 O.G. 1417 (D.C. Cir. 1897). The declaration indicates that attachment of pages 24 and 25 of a research report dated prior to November, 1999, but those mentioned pages were not supplied.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 13, 64-82 are rejected under 35 USC §102(e)/103(a). This rejection is set forth in the prior Office action mailed on November 16, 2005.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments filed on January 06, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

With regard to the declaration, see response to amendments above.

Applicants argue that the basis for the new limitations, the use of fibers of the same source as the treated fibers is taught in table 9, penultimate row. The examiner respectfully disagrees, while the curl index could indicate that other fibers were used; however this does not mean that the fibers were from the same source. The examiner fails to see how could it be deducted that the fibers were from the same source, from the data presented in Table 9. Clarification is requested.

Art Unit: 1731

Conclusion

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
